

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY REPORT

WAUNAKEE SCHOOLS: HIGH SCHOOL – INNOVATION CENTER

Week ending August 13th, 2016

What's New?

The Innovation Center project is under way! It is an exciting project for the District and all those who are making it possible. This existing technology education space is being converted to a new collaboration space with 3D printers, CNC routers, and other equipment.

The Past Two Weeks

- Final drawings and approvals
- Demo of existing ductwork and plumbing
- New round ductwork install
- Insulation of existing ductwork
- Locker removal / relocate
- Masonry for ramp
- Electrical demo
- Layout and procurement of material

Existing space prior to start of work. This area will have a new ADA access ramp, stairs, sink, and windows out to the corridor.

Coming Up in the Weeks Ahead

- Masonry ongoing
- Electrical demo and rough-in
- Mechanical exhaust and trim out
- Roof patching
- Window shoring and demo
- Pour ramp and new stair
- Painting
- Steel railings
- Flooring

A rendering of the new Innovation Center space

Did you know? Innovation Centers (Fab labs) are digital fabrication facilities aimed to provide widespread access to modern means for creation and invention. They began as an outreach project from MIT's Center for Bits and Atoms (CBA). Fab labs have spread from inner-city Boston to rural India, from South Africa to the North of Norway. Activities in fab labs range from technological empowerment to peer-to-peer project-based technical training to local problem-solving to small-scale high-tech business incubation to grass-roots research.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY REPORT

WAUNAKEE SCHOOLS: NEW INTERMEDIATE SCHOOL

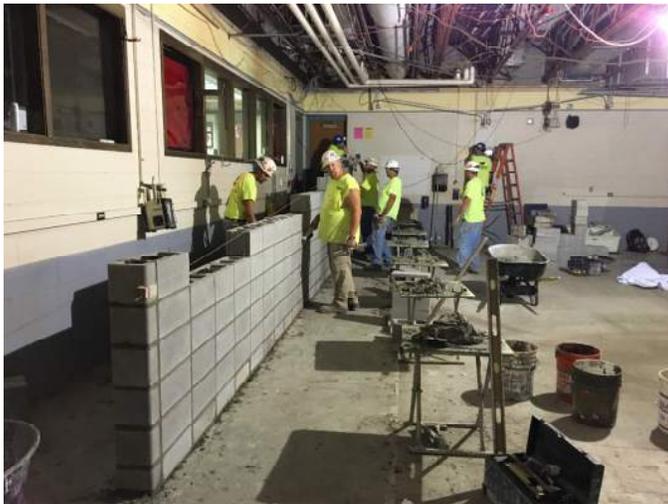

NAMI installed new spiral duct and insulation throughout the space

Neil and his team helping relocate the existing lockers off of the new window wall

Findorff's masonry team setting block for the new ADA ramp

Layout of the new windows in the corridor. A big part of this project is making the program more visible to students, staff, and parents. Many people don't know this room exists.

