Novelist

“My kid loved Harry Potter. What should they read next?” “I wonder if this is a good book for a second grader?” Do you ever ask yourself these questions? You can easily find the answers and so much more with the help of Novelist. Novelist is a free database that specializes in book recommendations, read-alikes, discussion guides and book lists. It’s simple to navigate and is directly connected to LINKcat making it easy to see if titles are available at the library and place holds. Novelist must be accessed through the library website and can be found here:
