

HUMAN GROWTH AND DEVELOPMENT INSTRUCTION

Policy 341.31

Waunakee Community School District

The School Board directs the administration to implement an instructional program in human growth and development for students in grades K-12. A student's parent or guardian is entitled to file a written request that exempts the student from participating in the applicable grade-level's human growth and development curriculum. Parent requests for exemptions should be filed with the Building Principal .

The Directors of Curriculum & Instruction or his/her administrative-level designee, shall have primary administrative responsibility for overseeing the development, maintenance, and implementation of the District's human growth and development curriculum.

- For each grade level, the curriculum specifications shall clearly indicate the portions of the instruction, if any, that will be delivered to students while the students are separated by gender.
- The curriculum materials shall include the grade-level outlines that must be annually provided to the parents and guardians of the students who are in the grades where the instructional program is offered.
- The Directors of Curriculum and Instruction shall present any proposed significant substantive revisions to the District's human growth and development curriculum to the Board for approval prior to the implementation of the proposed revisions

Human Growth and Development Ad Hoc Committee

The Directors of Curriculum and Instruction, or in his/her absence, a school principal designated by the District Administrator, shall serve as the chairperson of the District's ad hoc committee on the human growth and development curriculum. As established by state law, the role of the committee is to advise the Board and administration on the design and implementation of the applicable curriculum and to periodically review the curriculum on an advisory basis.

As express exceptions to any conflicting policies that otherwise address ad hoc committees in the District:

- In any school year in which the ad hoc committee will be convened, the chairperson shall propose a list of appointees for the ad hoc committee that is reflective of the membership goals identified in state law. The District Administrator may approve the proposed appointments on behalf of the Board for the then-current iteration of the ad hoc committee.
- An iteration of the ad hoc committee shall be appointed and convened prior to the implementation of any proposed significant substantive revisions to the District's human growth and development curriculum, and no less frequently than at least every 5 years.
- The chairperson and District Administrator shall notify the Board any time a new iteration of the ad committee is being convened.
- The Board may seek specific feedback from the current iteration of the committee.

- At his/her sole discretion, the chairperson may fill any vacancies that may arise on the committee.
- Unless otherwise directed by the Board, appointments to the committee will terminate and the current iteration of the ad hoc committee shall be considered disbanded upon the delivery of a curriculum review and recommendation report to the Board.
- The report to the Board may note any areas of consensus among the committee members and any areas where no consensus could be reached.
- Meetings of the ad hoc committee will be noticed pursuant to the Open Meetings Law.
